Easy, powerful CSS Selector generation.

Selector Gadget is an open source Chrome Extension that makes CSS selector generation and discovery on complicated sites a breeze.

After having installed the extension, go to any page and launch it. A box will open in the bottom right of the website. Click on a page element that you would like your selector to match (it will turn green). SelectorGadget will then generate a minimal CSS selector for that element, and will highlight (yellow) everything that is matched
